ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

This workshop allows a bench mark for the students of Science & Humanities to transform First Year B.E Students from black metal into gold. This one day hands on training on “Campus English to Corporate English” would really create a bench mark for the beginners to enhance their spoken ability to the higher level.

This workshop also paves a way for the students to have a regular practice with grammar and exercise, newspaper reading with the special focus on easy methods and approaches especially in comprehending the passages, game way methodologies, interactive method and role play. When the students come with the prime motto of learning the above mentioned skills, there is no doubt that he or she would definitely acquire the competency and accuracy over the English language which is otherwise a gate way language to multinational companies.

This workshop on campus English to corporate English will be toasted by an eminent personality from the ELTAI Group. He is very much specialized in English language teaching which he has been rendering to the society for the past four decades.
